Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2023-000855

Dear Durim Kamberi:

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on February 18, 2023, in which you seek “[t]he Signed Charge and all documents submitted/uploaded by the Charging Party” and “the 3/1/2023 Signed Amended Charge Against Union” in National Association of Letter Carriers (United States Postal Service), Case No. 31-CB-312145.

We acknowledged your request on February 18, 2023.

Your request is denied in part and granted in part, as explained below.

After conducting a search of the Agency’s electronic casehandling system, NxGen, I have confirmed that the requested case is an open case pending in the Agency’s Region 31 Los Angeles office. As such, I have determined that because certain records responsive to your request are part of an open investigative file pending before the Agency, they are exempt from disclosure pursuant to FOIA Exemption 7(A), 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(7)(A). Exemption 7(A) allows an agency to withhold records included in an open investigatory file where disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings. See NLRB v. Robbins Tire & Rubber Co., 437 U.S. 214, 236 (1978). Here, given the open status of the investigation by the Region, the investigatory records in the requested case file, including any documents submitted by the Charging Party, are being withheld in full at this time pursuant to Exemption 7(A).

Your request is granted to the extent that I have attached the requested Signed Charge and Signed Amended Charge in the case, which are available to the public pursuant to NLRB FOIA regulations regardless of the open/closed status of the case. Upon my review, redactions have been made to certain information in the records to protect the privacy interests of individuals named in the records. These redactions were made pursuant to FOIA Exemption 6, which pertains to information the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, and FOIA Exemption 7(C), which pertains to records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C).

Please note that Exemption 7(A) protection is “temporal in nature.” Citizens for Responsibility & Ethics in Wash. v. Dep’t of Justice, 746 F.3d 1082, 1097 (D.C. Cir 2014) (citing NLRB v. Robbins Tire, 437 U.S. 214, 223-24 230-32 (1978)). As such, case file records may become disclosable, subject to applicable exemptions, after the case closes, that is, once a Board decision and/or court order issues, there has been full compliance with a settlement, or the case has otherwise been closed under Agency procedures. Accordingly, you may wish to file a new request at that time.

The status of this case can be tracked on the Agency website at www.nlr.gov by going to the Cases & Decisions tab, clicking case search, entering the case number in the search box and viewing the case page or by clicking the link here: <https://www.nlr.gov/case/31-CB-312145>.

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category D, the “all other requesters” category, because you do not fall within any of the other fee categories. Consistent with this fee category, you will be assessed charges to recover the reasonable direct costs for searching for the requested records, except that you will not be charged for the first two hours of search. NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(ii)(D). Charges for all categories of requesters are $9.25 per quarter hour of professional time. 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(i).

Less than two hours of professional time was expended in searching for the requested material. Accordingly, there is no charge assessed for this request.

You may contact Jodilyn Breirather, the FOIA Specialist who processed your request, at (414) 930-7208 or by email at Jodilyn.Breirather@nlrb.gov, as well as the Agency’s FOIA Public Liaison, for any further assistance and/or to discuss any aspect of your request.
